

LEONARDSVILLE – AIKINS

Judith Ann Aikins, 64, of Leonardsville departed from her earthly home to the peaceful dwellings of our Lord on June 9, 2009.

She was born November 3, 1944 in Leonardsville, the daughter of Milton and Isabelle (Dauchy) Gould. She married her high school sweetheart Bruce P. Aikins September 23, 1961.

Judy retired from NYC Mutual Insurance Company where she had been employed as an Accountant. Volunteering and being supportive to her fellow man were synonymous with Judy's name. She was a stalwart volunteer to the Leonardsville Fire Department and United Methodist Church, and the West Winfield Library. Judy belonged to two Red Hat Societies, and served on the Plainfield Town Board of Appeals. One of her favorite volunteer jobs was being the Poster Girl for Faxton Pulmonary Rehab. Program.

In Judy's free time she enjoyed sewing and knitting and was a voracious reader. As a mother and wife she was always supported, encouraging, and affirmative. While she would never instruct her family on what to do, she would offer an assortment of ideas for them to consider. Her children consider their parents the best role models and heroes that God could have provided them.

Her husband Bruce; her children Brenda and Bret Belden of West Edmeston, Sgt. Brian P. Aikins of Iraq, John and Tammy Aikins of Boise, Idaho; her two very special grandchildren Ashley Ann Belden and John R. Aikins Jr.; her brother James and Ellen Gould of Leonardsville; brother-in-law Larry and Jane Aikins of Redwood; and several nieces and nephews survive Judy.

Funeral Services and Committal graveside for Judy will be held at the convenience of the family at Unadilla Forks Cemetery.

Contributions may be made in Judy's memory to the Faxton Pulmonary Rehab. Program at 1676 Sunset Ave., Utica, NY 13502

Condolences may be sent in Judy's memory to the Houk-Johnston-Terry Funeral Home website at hjtfuneralhome.com.

Arrangements by Houk-Johnston-Terry Funeral Home, Edmeston.