

RICHFIELD SPRINGS – CURSH

William Bryce Cursh, 78, of Richfield Springs, passed away peacefully March 16, 2009 at his home.

He was born December 14, 1930 in Burlington Flats. He was the son of Frank and Adah (Nichols) Cursh.

Bill was a farmer as well as doing construction work. He worked for the Town of Plainfield, and for thirty years he had been employed by the Department of Transportation. After retirement he enjoyed driving and talking with the Amish.

He loved the outdoors, working on wood and playing with his tractors.

Bill is survived by Lois, his loving wife of forty-one years; his daughter Leicia and her husband Tim Kilts, and their two daughters Nicole & Kimberly of Milford; another daughter Sonja Cursh of Richfield Springs. His children from a previous marriage; Susan Granata and her husband Vince of Oxford, and their daughters Danielle and Babbett and their husbands David and Jeremy. William R. Cursh and his wife Terrie, and their daughter Andrea of Burlington Flats. Patricia Pegg and her husband John of New Lisbon and their children. Several great grandchildren, and his beloved dog Rusty.

As per his wishes there will be no services or calling hours.

Condolences may be sent to the family online at www.hjtfuneralhome.com. Funeral arrangements are by the Houk-Johnston-Terry Funeral Home, Edmeston.
