

MILWAUKIE, ORE – SHUBERT

Robert Grant Shubert, 70 of Milwaukie, Ore., died Monday, March 23, 2009.

Bob was born in June 1938, the son of the late Ludwig and Phebe Shubert.

A 1956 graduate of the former Unadilla Central School, Bob was a member of Boy Scout Troop No 1 and served in the National Guard.

In 1961, Bob ventured to Alaska, where he worked in the Alaska King Crab factory. After returning to his family home in Bainbridge, he worked for a short time in the Bainbridge Creamery, before joining his father as a cattle dealer and auctioneer.

IN 1964, Bob moved to Oregon. He worked for many years as a bartender at such places as Timberline Lodge, Taylor's Viewpoint (where he met many famous performers such as Buck Owens and Charlie Pride), and the BPOE. After trying his hand at real-estate sales, Bob went to work at the Carlton Chainsaw Chain Co. He retired from there in August 2008, and was stricken with cancer in October of the same year.

His sisters and brothers-in-law in New York, Beatrice Judd of North Syracuse, Elsa and Mike Lampron of Edmeston, Dorothy and Jim Barnhart of Unadilla and Esther and Bill Horstman of Norwich survive Bob. Many nieces, nephews, cousins, three aunts and one uncle also survive him.

Besides his parents Bob was predeceased by his brother Walter, and Walter's family June, Hansine and Nelsine; his brother in Law Walt Judd, and niece Terry Blackman.

A memorial service will be held at the convenience of the family later in the spring at a time and place to be announced. Bob will be buried with the Shubert family in the Ouleout Vally Cemetery in Franklin.
